Section 4 and subsection 13(2) of the Languages Act, enacted by S.Y. 1988, c. 13, provide that "4 Acts of the Legislative Assembly and regulations made thereunder shall be printed and published in English and French and both language versions are equally authoritative." and "13(2) No Act or regulation made before December 31, 1990, will be of any force or effect if it has not been published in English and French before January 1, 1994";

Section 8 of the Enactments Republications Act, 1993, enacted by S.Y. 1993, c. 20 (and since repealed in 2002), established the process to implement section 4 of the Languages Act in respect of regulations by providing that "The Commissioner in Executive Council may establish and cause to be filed with the Registrar of Regulations, a regulations roll containing a consolidation of the English text and a first-time publication of the French text of regulations and Orders-in-Council that were in force before January 1, 1991 and are intended to remain in force after December 31, 1993";

Order-in-Council 1993/186 established the Regulations Roll referred to in section 8 of the Enactments Republications Act, 1993; and
